

communities that commitments for the remaining $250 million of support will only be made available to the most economically disadvantaged schools and libraries (those in the two most disadvantaged categories) for the next 30 days or the remainder of the funding year, whichever is shorter.

(ii) The most economically disadvantaged schools and libraries (those in the two most disadvantaged categories) that have not received discounts from the universal service support mechanism in the previous or current funding years shall have exclusive rights to secure commitments for universal service support under this subpart for a 30-day period or the remainder of the funding year, whichever is shorter. If such schools and libraries have received universal service support only for basic telephone service in the previous or current funding years, they shall remain eligible for the highest priority once spending commitments leave only $250 million remaining before the funding cap is reached.

(iii) Other economically disadvantaged schools and libraries (those in the two most disadvantaged categories) that have received discounts from the universal service support mechanism in the previous or current funding years shall have the next highest priority, if additional funds are available at the end of the 30-day period or the funding year, whichever is shorter.

(iv) The Administrator shall notify the Schools and Libraries Corporation of any funds still remaining after all requests submitted by schools and libraries described in paragraphs (g)(2) and (g)(3) of this section during the 30-day period have been met. The Schools and Libraries Corporation shall direct the Administrator to allocate the remaining available funds to all other eligible schools and libraries in the order in which their requests have been received by the Schools and Libraries Corporation, until the $250 million is exhausted or the funding year ends.

§ 54.509 Adjustments to the discount matrix.

(a) Estimating future spending requests. When submitting their requests for specific amounts of funding for a funding year, schools, libraries, library consortia, and consortia including such entities shall also estimate their funding requests for the following funding year to enable the Administrator, to estimate funding demand for the following year.

(b) Reduction in percentage discounts. If the estimates schools and libraries make of their future funding needs lead the Schools and Libraries Corporation to predict that total funding requests for a funding year will exceed the available funding, the Schools and Libraries Corporation shall calculate the percentage reduction to all schools and libraries, except those in the two most disadvantaged categories, necessary to permit all requests in the next funding year to be fully funded.

(c) Remaining funds. If funds remain under the cap at the end of the funding year in which the discounts have been reduced below those set in the matrices above, the Administrator shall inform the Schools and Libraries Corporation of such remaining funds. The Schools and Libraries Corporation then shall consult with the Commission to establish the best way to distribute those funds.

§ 54.511 Ordering services.

(a) Selecting a provider of eligible services. In selecting a provider of eligible services, schools, libraries, library consortia, and consortia including any of those entities shall carefully consider all bids submitted and may consider relevant factors other than the pre-discount prices submitted by providers.

(b) Lowest corresponding price. Providers of eligible services shall not charge schools, school districts, libraries, library consortia, or consortia including any of these entities a price above the lowest corresponding price for supported services, unless the Commission, with respect to interstate services or the state commission with respect to intrastate services, finds that the
